

Zoom Seminar for Taught Postgraduate (TPg) Students
by Adjunct Professors of the Department of Accountancy

To enrich students' professional and practical knowledge, the Department of Accountancy organized two Zoom seminars before the examination period. There were approximately 30 student participants in each seminar, which were as follows:

1. Career Development - Soft Skills by Mr Wilfred Wong on 28 April 2020
2. Connected Transactions under HK Listing Rules by Mr P. H. Chik on 2 May 2020

Mr Wilfred Wong was an assurance partner of PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC), Hong Kong, before he retired in June 2016, having been in the accounting and auditing profession for 37 years. Mr Wong has a wealth of experience in the provision of assurance services to companies seeking IPOs in various capital markets, including Hong Kong, the U.S., and mainland China. He was also the Technical Leader of PwC China and PwC Hong Kong on audit methodology, quality assurance, and accounting consulting services. Mr Wong has been an Adjunct Professor of the Department of Accountancy at CityU and has been teaching auditing since July 2016.

Mr P. H. Chik was a partner of Baker McKenzie, Beijing Office, from 2007 to 2012 and a partner of Linklaters, Beijing Office, between 2012 and 2016. Upon returning to Hong Kong in 2017, he joined another international law firm as a partner, before his retirement in April 2018. He has extensive experience in advising IPOs and post-listing compliance. Mr Chik has been an Adjunct Professor of the Department of Accountancy at CityU since April 2019.
